GUIDE ON HOW TO GET FREE V-BUCKS

FORTNITE V-BUCKS: WHAT ARE V-BUCKS?

Epic Games' battle royale game is free. And, with its stonkingly high Fortnite player numbers in mind, Epic have to make money from it somehow. The answer is Fortnite V-Bucks, a virtual currency with which you can acquire a handsome collection of colourful cosmetics in exchange for real money. You can't, however, spend your digital dollars on anything that will give you a competitive advantage. These items are purely for fashion purposes, which is an end unto itself in our book.

You can also use your Fortnite V-Bucks to grab yourself a Battle Pass, a tiered system within each season in which you can unlock challenges to win yourself more cosmetic stash. The Battle Pass costs 950 V-Bucks and, in the item store, outfits and emotes tend to cost between 1500 and 500. Legendary skins typically cost 2000.

TIPS FOR GETTING V-BUCKS FAST AND EASILY

Follow these simple tips to ensure the best V-Buck income. Making it easier for you to farm V-Bucks.

You can replace one Daily Quest each day.

Use the Daily Quests chart to determine if your Daily Quest is worth keeping!

Daily Destroy Quest can be done by your teammates but in Husk Extermination Quest you need to damage the slain husks.

Remember to look your minimap for yellow exclamation marks when searching for Daily Destroy objects.

Beginning of the "Save the World" grants high income of V-Bucks. Side Quests/Challenges will eventually be finished.

Events are usually very fast source of V-Bucks. Single events have awarded as much as 800 V-Bucks from event's quests.

Events reward you with event specific Llamas and the items are usable in Collection Book leveling.

Storm Shield Defenses and forest areas should be avoided for most of the Daily Destroy quests.

Try to complete as many V-Buck rewarding tasks as possible at the same time.

Progressing in the main questline unlocks new areas to find more Timed Missions.

Login every day to get the Daily Login Reward as rewa include 10 000 V-Bucks in 336 days.

Timed Missions have a reward claim cap of three in 24h and the missions change every six hours.

Current V-Buck rewarded Timed Missions (if any) can be seen on top of the home page.

You can see all current Timed Missions on the Timed Missions page, provided by Storm Shield One.
